Dear Mr. Colby:

Steering Committee:
FRED WARNER NEAL
CARL MARCY
KENNETH W. THOMPSON

As you will see from the enclosed program, arrangements are now virtually complete for Pacem in Terris IV. Robert Hutchins and Randolph Compton have asked me to express our gratitude for your willingness to participate in this major effort to clarify the foreign policy issues facing the American people.

As you know your appearance is scheduled for 9:30 a.m., Thursday, December 4. The plenary sessions will be held in the main ballroom of the Sheraton Park Hotel, and we expect a capacity audience of some 3,000 invited guests. You will share the platform with Senator Frank Church. The principal addresses will be followed by a panel discussion, in which we hope you will join.

100-
We suggest that you limit your formal remarks to twenty minutes. If possible we would like to have copies of your address in our Washington office by November 20 so they may be circulated among the discussants and distributed to the media. The Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions and the Fund for Peace will publish an edited version of the proceedings, including excerpts from the transcript of the panel discussion.

Executive Director:
PETER TAGGER

Since we expect extensive television coverage, timing of these sessions is critical. We would appreciate it, therefore, if you could be available by 9:00 a.m. at the participants' reception room--the Potomac Lounge--just outside the main ballroom. If you desire special arrangements, or any additional information, please have your office contact our Washington coordinator:

Mrs. Peggy Nalle

We are looking forward to having you with us at Pacem in Terris IV.

Sincerely,

Harry S. Ashmore
Secretary-General
